An Efficient Administrative Staff

Principal, Mr. Alexander Monroe

TO THE CLASS OF '69

With admiration and loyalty, I wish to congratulate the Senior Class of fifty-six students. It is with great pride that I look upon you as the first class to graduate under my administrative leadership. You were most cooperative and dedicated to the cause of Price High School.

You have served faithfully and finished your tenure here at Price, now you are on your first lap to satisfy your thirst from the spring of knowledge and learning. In your haste to quench your thirst, please remember that a little of both is a very dangerous thing—so drink deep or do not touch the water from the flowing spring.

Working with you for the past year—my first year as your principal—has been an inspiring and learning experience for me. For the past four years, I have watched you grow in stature, interest, initiative, cooperation, scholarship, efficiency, leadership, and accomplishments. I must say that your greatest accomplishments of the past four years has been the publishing of this fine Pricean and graduating from Price High School. Congratulations on both of these and may you find happiness and success in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely yours,

Alexander Monroe

Dedication

MR. JOSEPH E. ANDERSON

It is with great pleasure that we, the Senior Class of Price High School, dedicate our annual to Mr. Joseph E. Anderson who has been an inspirational torch and a guiding light to our lives. He has inspired us to speak up for what we believe, no matter what religion, no matter what race, or creed. He has pushed us from the seed of life, to the full bloom of the future. With this thought in mind, we the Seniors of 1969, take this opportunity to solemnly pledge to continue this experiment, to build our future lives, into something new and better, throughout the years to come, and to stand high with leadership, obedience, courtesy, promptness, and most of all a high standard of discipline in our future goals.

Great Personalities

For your loyalty to the student body, your guidance and leadership through the years; in the classroom and on the athletic field, we proudly and affectionately select Mrs. C.M. Marshall and Mr. J. W. Bridges as the last great personalities of Price High School, hopefully that you will always remember that you shared a special place in our hearts.

JOY IS MINGLED WITH SADNESS AS THE YEAR CLOSES

As we approach the threshold of Commencement, we are faced with joy mingled with sadness. Joy because we have finally reached the long awaited objective—graduation. Sadness because we are cognizant that our class' graduation will mark the end of this school as a learning institution as well as the end of an era.

Changing times have finally caused complete integration in order to give our students the necessary preparation to participate actively in contemporary society.

Under the capable guidance and direction of principals: L.H. Hall, O.C. Hall, S.O. Jones, G. W. Miller, A. Monroe, and the motivation and stimulation of dedicated faculty members through the years, prominent Priceans have taken their rightful places in society and made an indelible impression in various fields of endeavor. As we reflect on these contributions to American culture we can feel a sense of pride and dignity in our own heritage. To mention a few in education we can boast of our own Elizabeth Duncan Koontz, Isaac H. Miller, Jr., John Lash, James Simpson, Sr.; in medicine, Theodore Evans, Albert Reid, Clinton Jones, Richard Sherrill, Willet Miller Scott; proprietors, Wiley Lash, John McLaughlin, E.V. Taggart; ministers, Samuel Hopkins, David Pharr, Percy Smith; athletes, Oatten Fisher, Ralph Jordan; writers, Walter G. Jones, Jesse Walker; law, Frankie Sawyer, J.B. Duncan; morticians, the Kelsey Brothers of our city; musicians; Marie French, Clara Milton; government, Rudolph Aggrey; contractors, Samuel Ross, the Wilkins Brothers; insurance executives, Henry Watson, Vivian Steele; entertainment, Eugene Hovis; administrative, Augusta White, Minnie Miller Brown; industry, Charles H. Hunt.

The Class of 1969 feel that we could do nothing less than accept the challenge set by former students of Price, and we pledge ourselves to make our imprints in the annals of history, by continuing the Price tradition of undaunted leadership and service. May we always remember that Price is "priceless."

Farewell Dear Price High

Oh, Price High, so tall and strong, we'll long remember your golden arms;

You have guided us on our every step, you have strived with us on our every breath;

You have taught us so much, in so little a time, you have been warm dependable and kind.

As the years roll by, we'll take a cry, and look back with a heart full of love that-will-never-die.

We will remind ourselves that dear Price High was our map to the future and we have done our duty to follow it's rule, to stay neat, prompt, and cool.

We may not be the President, but we are still a resident of North Carolina, and a graduate of Price High School.

Your red brick wall still shines strongly in the sun, your bright flag still waves happily to everyone;

Your halls are still alive with their mighty foundations, lockers and voices are just mere imitations;

We are the proud followers,
We have done our duty;
We are the proud followers,
We are Price High's students,
Good-by dear Price High!

STICK AROUND

One of the best things about growing up in this area is that you never have to leave it. Because its economy is growing in leaps and bounds, producing new job opportunities in both business and agriculture. Too, you'll find technical and higher education facilities second to none. So come graduation time, stick around. You won't find a better place to live, work, and play.
